Wage Subsidy Eligibility

Your business is eligible regardless of size, industry or geographic location, if:

- Your Trainee/s commence their Training Contract between 5th October 2020 & 30th June 2022;
- Your Trainee is a 'New Worker' ie. Full-Time less than 3 months or Part- Time less than 12 months;
- Your Trainee is an 'Existing Worker' but:
 - You're transferring them from a casual employment arrangement to either a part-time or full-time; OR
 - You're transferring them from a part-time employment arrangement to full-time
 - You are only enrolling up to 30 Existing Workers via complying with the above clauses
- You aren't already receiving another form of Australian Government wage subsidy for the Trainee e.g. Supporting Apprentices & Trainees OR JobKeeper (NB you could enrol a Trainee once they come off JobKeeper)

How & When Do I Receive the Wage Subsidies

- The Australian Apprenticeship Support Network provider (eg. Busy, MEGT, MAS, etc) chosen to sign-up your Trainees will complete a Boosting Apprenticeship Commencements Registration form
- Payments are made quarterly directly into your nominated bank account
- When claiming you simply to present a signed copy of the Training Plan (which we'll provide you) + evidence confirming the gross wage paid to your Trainee (e.g. payroll prints, time and wages sheets or payslips)
